

2012 REGIONAL LEADERSHIP AWARDS

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

Since 1992, the Mid-America Regional Council has annually recognized individuals and institutions that have made outstanding contributions to the region. The recipients of MARC's Regional Leadership awards have advanced a vision of a strong, healthy region, demonstrated commitment to its growth, and encouraged others to support and work towards that vision.

Recipients may be current or past elected officials; individuals employed as professionals within governmental organizations; institutions or agencies, including governmental units or sub-units, businesses, foundations, civic or non-profit organizations or educational institutions; or volunteer leaders in public or private organizations. Current members of MARC's Board of Directors are not eligible for nomination.

MARC's Regional Leadership Awards recognize leadership and excellence in:

- Advocating regional concepts, approaches and programs
- Advancing the vision of the region as a community of excellence
- Addressing regional challenges
- Applying innovative solutions to regional problems
- Achieving improved quality of life and equitable opportunity for the region's citizens.
