106 CITIES
39 EMS AGENCIES

Are you ready to start your career as an EMT or paramedic? Or are you an experienced EMT or paramedic who is looking for a new career opportunity?

EMS agencies in the Greater Kansas City area are hiring now.

The region offers a variety of options to suit every need — small town agencies and large urban operations; public and private agencies; and basic and advanced life-support operations.

We offer competitive wages and room to grow.

The Kansas City metro area boasts one of the lowest costs of living in the nation for regions of its size. Salaries are competitive and housing is affordable.

It's a great place to live and raise a family.

The Kansas City area offers the best of both worlds — the cultural and recreational opportunities of a large metropolitan area, coupled with the clean air and lower traffic congestion you might expect in a smaller city.

Good people. Great jobs.

EMS agencies in the region work together through MARCER — the Mid-America Regional Council Emergency Rescue Committee. Cooperation and coordination are key among these agencies, as they work together to make pre-hospital care the best that it can be.

Greater Kansas City Area EMS Agencies

Together, MARCER's member agencies have developed a Web site with more information about emergency medical service jobs in Greater Kansas City. Visit www.marc.org/emsjobs to find out more about the region, current job openings and contacts for various agencies.
