A FIRST LOOK AT THE 2010 CENSUS

Creating Sustainable Places
Coordinating Committee
April 15, 2011
POPULATION BY COUNTY, 2000 AND 2010
POPULATION CHANGE BY COUNTY, 2000 AND 2010

[Bar chart showing population change by county, 2000 and 2010.]
INDEX OF DISSIMILARITY

- If blacks were geographically distributed like whites, what percentage of them would have to move?
- In 1990 and 2000, metropolitan Kansas City’s segregation of blacks and whites ranked as the 11th highest among metros over 1 million in population.
- In 2010, this rank dropped to 26th.
INDEX OF DISSIMILARITY, PEER METROS, 1990-2010
2000-2010 Hispanic Population Change by Census Tract

Note: Data derived from PL94-171, table P2, which tabulates the Hispanic population and non-Hispanic population by race.

More information and data use policy available at www.marc.org/gis
2000-2010 Change in Other Race Populations by Census Tract

Race Groups Included:
- American Indian
- Hawaiian & Pacific Islander
- Other Two or more races

Note: Data derived from PL94-171, table P2, which tabulates the Hispanic population and non-Hispanic population by race. More information and data use policy available at www.marc.org/gis
2000-2009 Change in Poverty Rate by Census Tract

Decrease in poverty rate
- 1%
- 5%
- 10%

Increase in poverty rate
- 1%
- 5%
- 10%

APRIL 2010

More information and data use policy available at www.marc.org/gis
2000-2010 Population Change

Population Change
- Gain
- Loss

Note: Data derived from PL94-171, table P2, which tabulates the Hispanic population and non-Hispanic population by race.

More information and data use policy available at www.marc.org/gis

MARCH 2010